

HOW TO GET TO BOGGO ROAD GAOL...

For "guests" of Her (or His) Majesty the journey to Boggo Road Gaol was longest ride of their lives taken in the back of the "Black Mariah". Visitors too found the journey to be a long one, as prison was on the outskirts of Brisbane.

130 years later the city has grown around it and now going to prison has never been easier. Well serviced by public transport, roads and bike paths, it has never been easier to go to Boggo Road Gaol. Boggo Road Gaol is situated on Annerley Road, located 10 minutes from Brisbane's CBD, and easily accessible by car, coach, train, bus on foot or bike.

BY TRAIN

Take trains to Park Road station via the Gold Coast, Beenleigh, Cleveland lines. From platform take stairs/elevator. Cross overhead bridge. Follow 'Way Out' signs towards Boggo Road Urban Village. Cross Boggo Road. Gaol can be seen in the distance. For assistance with trains and buses visit www.translink.com.au or call 13 12 30.

BY BUS

Buses to Boggo Road Gaol depart from Stop 16 on Adelaide Street in the Brisbane CBD. Other routes also stop at Boggo Road Bus Station. Take Brisbane City Council bus to Boggo Road Bus Station. From platform take stairs/elevator. Cross overhead bridge. Follow 'Way Out' signs towards Boggo Road Urban Village. Cross Boggo Road. Gaol can be seen in the distance. For assistance with trains and buses visit www.translink.com.au or call 13 12 30.

BY CAR / PARKING

The Gaol is located on Brisbane's southside next to Annerley Road, Dutton Park and can be accessed by the southeast freeway. From Annerley Road turn into Boggo Road next to the Dutton Park Police Station. At crest of hill turn right and park in Visitor Set-Down. Additional parking can be found behind the Dutton Park State School or on Joe Baker Street behind the EcoSciences building.

BY COACH

Organising a group tour? An event? We utilise the services of several coach companies for groups of 20 or more. Please contact our Booking Manager on 0478 191 901 to assist you to arrange coach transportation to Boggo Road Gaol. Coaches can park right outside Boggo Road Gaol by arrangement. Visitors arriving by coaches can be dropped right outside the Gaol gatehouse by arrangement.